

Defendant's Access to Police Reports, Driving Histories, and Criminal Histories

---

Upon the filing of charges through a Summons and Complaint, the Defendant may order and have access to the discovery in their case, which may include police reports, accident reports, body worn camera footage, and other investigative documents and evidence.

The Defendant may obtain a copy of their driving history from the Colorado Department of Revenue - Motor Vehicles Division, and a copy of their criminal history from the Colorado Bureau of Investigations.

The Judge may review police reports, accident reports, driver's histories, and criminal histories for purposes of sentencing and for setting of bond.

Effective date: August 28, 2025

---

Tiffany Sorice
Presiding Municipal Judge