

Delosperma Kelaidis 'Mesa Verde'

This ice plant appeared spontaneously at the Denver Botanical Gardens and the cultivar is named after Curator of Plant Collections, Panayoti Kelaidis. The salmon pink flowers are present all summer long dispersed upon a thick continuous matt. It prefers sandy poor soil , full sun, and very little water.

Height 2" Spread 6"-10".

