

LINUM PERENNE

BLUE FLAX

This profuse bloomer is covered with sky blue flowers from late spring to early summer. The thin fibrous stems were used by early European cultures to make linen and rope. Flax looks best when planted in groups in wild gardens or naturalized plantings. Low water, full sun, can tolerate most soils.

Height 24-36" Spread 12-18"

USDA Zones: 4-9

